Peterson: Rumors of arrests untrue

BY TRACI BONNEY

VOL. 99, NO. 65

Rumors of drug arrests involving prominent area residents arë just that — rumors according to Hancock County Sheriff Ronnie Peterson.

"It's all rumors. None of it is true," Peterson said Tuesday. He said tales have circulated for at least three weeks of local business people being arrested for a variety of charges, usually involving cocaine. "I've received numerous calls from the media and from other residents about this," he commented. "There's no merit to any of it." Peterson said this rumor is not following a normal pattern. "Usually something like this will die out after a week or so. But this time it's escalating. Whoever's doing it started with one or two names, and now there are several. The list is

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI

Peterson has no theories as to why the rumors started. One possibility — politics — doesn't really fit, he said.

"Next year is a political year. People usually start rumors on political years," he remarked, implying that it is too early for these rumors to be politically connected.

Calls to narcotics officials in Harrison County confirmed that the arrests in question were not made in Harrison or Hancock counties.

Disputed road remains private

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Board of Supervisors declined to decide Wednesday on the issue of ownership of Road #303.

The board had declared the road to be public at a Monday meeting, based on information from three affidavits. Two of the affidavits were from former supervisors who claimed they had maintained the roads for more than 10 years.

Benvenutti questioned whether the road has even existed for 10 years when he submitted several documents, plats and maps at the Wednesday meeting.

According to Benvenutti, the maps and plats show that the road was not built until 1981 or

Five years of studies yield minimal results

BY TRACI BONNEY

Members of the Hancock County Sand Beach Advisory Committee congratulated themselves at the end of Tuesday's meeting.

The committee passed a motion to recommend the county board of supervisors apply with the Bureau of Marine Resources and the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit to renourish parts of the county's beach and to repair the drainage structures in the renourished areas.

After voting the motion, one member said he thought the committee had accomplished something, and another member encouraged a round of applause.

The committee was formed five years ago to study the problems of beach erosion and to give recommendations for solutions to the board of supervisors. After many studies were conducted, several options were proposed and discarded.

Although no ideas for the actual renourishment were agreed upon, committee members concurred that the permit application was a step in the right direction.

Another motion passed at the meeting concerned seawall tax revenues. Chairman John Scafide said he thought seawall tax revenues should be used only for purposes connected with seawall and beach road protection.

Other members agreed and voted that a request be made to the board of supervisors that seawall revenues be used only for seawall and beach road purposes. Board accepts district's request for shortfall loan

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Board of Supervisors at its Monday meeting agreed to a request from the county school district for a shortfall loan of approximately $99,000.

County superintendent Terrell Randolph made the request in July for the loan, which would be used to cover a shortage in revenues brought about by uncollected taxes.

The board took it under advisement, but did not take action on it.

The vote to accept the request occurred after board attorney Gerald Gex brought to the board's attention the fact that it had not resolved the matter.

Gex also informed the board that Tax Assessor/collector Edward Murtagh has asked if there is any way the county can avoid levying a tax on Notre Dame de la Mer. Gex said he is researching the matter, but has no sure answers at this time.

"I don't think anyone really wants to charge the people at Notre Dame de la Mer," he commented. The board also:

-opened bids for two tractors and a pickup truck; -approved the sale of general obligation industrial revenues bonds worth $450,000 for two Port and Harbor Commission projects;

- and voted to post no loiter-BOARD-Page 2A

Reggie Forrest, 22, was arrested on three counts of aggravated assault after an incident that occurred at the Pearlington boat launch Saturday. As of Wednesday afternoon, he was incarcerated in the Hancock County Fail under $10,000 bond.

Arrested on a charge of malicious mischief was Mickey Bello, 18. He was released on $500

Hoda said another arrest is pending as the investigation of the incidents continues.

The boat launch incident reportedly involved about 37 people, including eight children, and stemmed from accusations that four of the adults involved were responsible for Ku Klux Klan graffiti that had appeared in several places in Pearlington. Another incident involved a car window being knocked out, with black people accusing white people of doing the damage, according to Sheriff Ronnie

Ministers appeal to Pearlington residents

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Four ministers from Pearlington churches on Wednesday issued an appeal to the residents of the community to exercise "calm and restraint" in reference to several incidents which happened in the area last weekend.

The group also plans to contact ministers of the other churches in Pearlington to discuss the holding a commumnity

The meeting will be to seek input for possible solutions to many problems which affect the citizens of the western Hancock

The ministers issuing the statement were Dr. Bill Jenkins, Pearlington United Methodist Church; Rev. Bobby Dailey, Holmes United Methodist Chapel; Father Toner, St. Joseph's Catholic Church; and Rev. Tommy Mosser, Pearlington Baptist Church Church.

The statement the group issued follows;

Upgrading air park may begin in Sept.

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission has agreed to meet with the last of three consultant firms to negotiate the cost of updating the master plans of the regional airport, Stennis International Air Park.

The commission expects to spend $50-60,000 for the improvement of the 1973 plans.

Pending acceptance by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, work is expected to begin on the single plane T-hangars by the end of September.

Work on Webre Way Road, which passes behind GE Plastics in the Port Bienville Industrial Park, was also discussed at Monday's meeting. A resolution to initiate steps in a state assistance program will be pre-sented to the Hancock County Board of Supervisors on Friday. An estimated $80,000 in work costs will be asborbed through the state aid. The commission agreed to pay the quarterly $6,422.98 interest compounded by the original industrial park loan.

The loan is now one-tenth of the original indebtedness.

Members congratulated each other for their timely and consistent handling of payment. Commissioner Dave McDonald reaffirmed the board's "commitment to sound business principles".

Railroad operation cost was discussed. The board questioned the addition of a third locomotive to the Port Bienville Railroad.

The advantage of leasing over purchasing was explained by Commissioner Nancy Gex. "We now see it is far less expensive to lease than to own one and pay for the repairs.'

Engineer Carlos Cordon of Cortech Inc. reported to the commission the By-Products

Management (Eagle Brooks) railroad extention is now complete and in operation.

The following dockets were unanimously approved: general operating cost; Industrial Park revenue cost; general bond revenue cost and general bond of 1989.

KILLING TIME

By Traci Bonney

It's that time again.

I'm moving at the end of this month. This makes the 25th move I've made - including moves into and out of dormitories in college — during my lifetime.

I'll be 25 in December, so that means I've averaged a move for every year of my life. I'm tired of moving.

When I was a child, I enjoyed the moving process but hated leaving friends and familiar surroundings. Now I don't mind going into a new area and meeting new people, but I despise the actual business of moving.

First you have to find a place to live, and that alone can be an adventure, especially if you aren't familiar with the city where you plan to relocate.

Personally, I'm not too thrilled with living in an apartment complex. So many people in such a small area can make you feel a bit claustrophobic if you're used to having a whole house to yourself

On the other hand, I hate yardwork. I quit doing it when I discovered my brothers liked mowing and raking but hated to do the dishes. We vorked out an agreement — I wouldn't mess with the lawn equipment if they would get out of the kitchen.

That means I'll either learn to love yardwork or get used to paying someone else to do it if I decide to rent a house.

(It's about 1 p.m. Tuesday as I type this. I started writing this column Monday, and have since found an apartment. It's not in a large complex, so I don't have to worry about a lot of possibly strange neighbors. However, since it is an apartment, I don't have to deal with yardwork, praise the Lord!)

After you've secured a residence and recovered from the agony of deposits and utility fees, you then must turn your attention and energy to getting ready to vacate your present domicile.

Translation: now is when you sort through, throw out, sell off and pack up everything you've managed to accumulate during your years on this earth. You exhaust your muscles, your nerves and your vocabulary of interjections and slang phrases in an effort to box your life without losing your marbles.

Sometime during this little ordeal, you must remember to go to the post office and have your mail forwarded to your new address. It won't do you any good to end up running by your old house every day to get your mail, especially not if you move a long distance — like from Philadelphia, Pa., to Houston, Texas.

To me, the worst part of moving is taking down my photos, needlework and other wall decorations. It's almost as if you aren't really leaving until you see those bare walls - especially in my case, where most of the decorations are my own work.

Next on the list is moving furniture. I can't stand doing that! In fact, I have left furniture in apartments more than once just to avoid moving it (don't fret; it was cheap stuff).

Other trials and tribulations of moving include cleaning the place you're leaving, cleaning the place you're moving into and telling all your family and friends where you now live.

And of course there's the business of setting up housekeeping. Fun! I usually live out of boxes for at least a month, pulling out things as I need them. It's a slow way to unpack and organize, to say the least.

Well, I'll end this column here. I have to go box-hunting.

Special education coordinator hired

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District accepted a recommendation Monday to hire Sherry Ponder as coordinator of the Special Education Cooperative Program, a city/ county consortium. She was approved Tuesday night by the Hancock County School Board.

Ponder has 11 years of special education teaching and administrative experience and has worked in Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian and Pascagoula.

She served as a teacher consultant, then as director of special education, in Pascagoula, and taught in Pass Christian before serving as program developer. She has a bachelor's degree in special education from the University of Southern Mississippi and a master's degree in supervision administration. Ponder is married to Sea Coast Echo general manager Randy Ponder. The school board also authorized superintendent Robert Magee to take whatever interim measures may be necessary to prevent the carrying of weapons on school property until the board's next meeting.

The motion was voted, in light of the "gunslinger" law passed at the state legislature's special session, to allow time for review and revision of a current school district policy concerning students' carrying of weapons in school.

In addition, the board: -accepted the resignations of two teacher assistants and a teacher aide:

-accepted recommendations to hire six teachers, several teacher assistants and aides, and a group of regular and substitute bus drivers;

—approved single source

—and accepted cafeteria bids for bread, milk and ice cream.

At Garden Park Community Hospital, specially trained physicians are now able to use laser technology for gallbladder removal. The Krewe of Nereids will be celebrating its silver anniversary with a family fish fry on Saturday from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Hancock County Civic Center, Longfellow Road.

As most of you know, Nereids brings Mardi Gras to Hancock County each year.

Tickets for the fish fry are for a donation of $5 a person and take-out orders will be available.

In addition to the fish fry, Nereids will sponsor a dance which begins at 9 p.m. featuring Bay St. Louis' own Pat Murphy Band.

Tickets for the dance are $10 a person, and this is scheduled to really be a night of entertainment.

Tickets will be available at the Waveland Drug Store, Waveland and Bay Crafts, North Beach Boulevard, Bay St. Louis or at the door.

Entertainment begins for those with the dance tickets at 8 p.m. when Nereids' answer to the Chippendales will be presented.

This will be a good opportunity for everyone to show appreciation to the Krewe of Nereids for bringing us a beautiful Mardi Gras parade each year.

For further information call Patsy Dubuisson at 467-0244.

Arresting officer not above the law

To the Editor,

I am a member of the International Game Fish Association and a purist fisherman, who fishes in consistency with all of the association rules and regulations. I am also an avid fly fisherman with membership in the Gulf Coast Fly Fishing were given to some fishermen who disregarded the size and limit law. I certainly do not oppose enforcement, but the officer who gave these citations was not above the law himself.

I am very much aware of the state and federal regulations concerning size and limits and consider myself an example to my fellow fishermen.

I have several witnesses who observed this officer climb around a locked gate and proceed down a pier approximately 800 feet of private property. I am the property owner, and I feel my rights were violated.

Dear Editor,

My daughter, who is autistic, has just finished attending summer camp. The camp was held at North Bay Elementary and was sponsored by Parents and Professionals for Exceptional Children and the United

It was a wonderful experience for all of the children involved. They were kept busy with tennis, baseball, soccer. arts and crafts and movies. The children were treated to a swimming party given by Brother Albert at the St. Stanislaus swimming pool. The Waveland Resort Inn invited the campers to a fun morning of miniature golf that gave a whole new meaning to the words "happy campers!" The session ended with a Happy Meal' party at the local McDonald's.

It takes a special kind of person to bring out the best in special children. There were four very special counselors guiding our children. I would like to thank Laura Griffith, Coach

They were assisted by four terrific young ladies who gave up a large portion of their summer to the program. They were always there with a hug or a word of encouragement. They are Tammy Garcia, Sara Mason, Heather South and Mary West.

Thank you is such a trite phrase and doesn't really convey the feelings our family has for this beautiful group of people. I think in the heart of every family who is blessed with a handicapped child is the desire to be accepted just like any other family. Our counselors treated our children with compassion and dignity and made each one feel like "one of the gang." Good bless you all, we

Iraqui power grab must be checked

After weeks of threats and military posturing by Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein, Iraqi forces moved into Kuwait August 1, occupying major portions of the country and leaving Hussein in control of at least 20 percent of the world's oil reserve. The U.S. and the rest of our allies cannot allow this ruthless power grab to go unchecked.

Hussein's drive to dominate the Persian Gulf poses a serious threat to the worldwide economy. More importantly, his actions are a threat to the world security. Do we really want Saddam Hussein to be a dominant force in the global power structure?

I think not. Hussein is a bloodthirsty dictator who is threatening the recent climate of world peace as much as he has terrorized his own country. So far, President Bush has responded just right.

Immediately after sion, Bush contacted the Soviet Union's Mikail Gorbachev and gained assurances that the Iraqi situation would not escalate into an East versus West confrontation. Instead, Bush, Gorbachev, Britain's Margaret Thatcher and Israel's Shamir and even Egypt are presenting a united front to preserve peace and protect security interests that stretch far beyond the Cold

Time and time again, history shows that you can't deal with the Saddam Husseins of the world by using reason. Over the last decade, Iraq has built up a military force w iich boasts more than 1 million soldiers, 5,000 battle tanks and 500 of the most sophisticated fighter planes built. Ironically, Iraq bought most of its weapons from the United States and the Soviet Union during its war with Iran. Iraq also has a history of human rights abuses and continues to develop chemical and nuclear weapons. Hussein used chemical warfare to kill thousands of his own countrymen in the late 1980s. What is to prevent him from using the weapons against his more responsible neighbors?

Recently, I supported a measure in the Congress that bars the import of Iraqi goods to the United States and bans U.S. exports to the Arab country. But economic sanctions alone will not grab Hussein's attention. The U.S. needs to maintain its strong conventional forces to deter gangster nations like Iraq from threatening world peace. The situation in the Near East is worth a show of force if necessary, but there is no need for the United States to act prematurely on the situation. Turkey and Iran will help put the economic squeeze on Iraq by shutting down an oil pipeline that transports much of Iraq's oil to carriers in the Mediterranean and Persion Gulf.

We have a 590-million barrel Strategic Petroleum Reserve to fall back on. And the recent deployment of American troops to Saudi Arabia will likely accomplish two things. It will discourage Hussein from further displays of aggression and encourage Saudi Arabia to step up its oil production in exchange for the protection.

Cochran urges Senate passage of agriculture panel's farm bill

WASHINGTON

REPORT

By Senator

Thad Cochran *

Senator Thad Cochran urged colleagues to pass the Senate Agriculture Committee's 1990 farm bill without costly price support guarantees offered from the floor.

"This bill will help the U.S. agriculture sector to continue as a competitive, worldwide enterprise," he said in a floor speech as the Senate began debate on the five-year omnibus farm bill.

Cochran, a senior member of the agriculture panel, noted the 1985 farm bill expiring this year has "proven to be a great success in many respects" and the committee bill is largely an extension of those programs and policies.

He cited the marketing loan and export enhancement programs he helped author in the 1985 Act as successes in reducmarketplace.

Cochran warned against adopting costly amendments which, while guaranteeing grain farmers a certain income, would likely price those crops

He pointed to the work of the committee in holding hearings around the country last year to secure input from farmers.

"This has not been an easy process," he commented on the panel's bill now before the full Senate. "Let's not unravel the compromise that this bill reflects."

In addition to continuing the marketing loan program for soybeans. All three are major crops in the Mid-South.

An omelette (or omelet, if you prefer that spelling) is one of the easiest luncheon or supper dishes on a sultry summer day, whether you've planned it whether you've planned it ahead, or whether you're coping serve or jelly or jam or such fillwith unexpected last-minute ing, and dust the top with arrivals at the table.

Our old family cook always used two eggs per person, along with "half an eggshell of cream or milk and a good dusting of fresh-ground black pepper from the peppermill and a dash of

Her omelettes, plain or fancy, were always delicious, although I've often found since those days that substituting water or soda water for the cream or milk makes for a light and fluffy omelette as well. (This works well with pancakes, also.)

And, with all the variations of flavorings and additions to the omelette itself, or as fillings for rolled omelettes, and so on and on, an omelette is often the answer to the hurried cook's prayer.

The French "omelette aux fines herbes" is nothing more than the standard omelette formula, with a generous tablespoon or more of well-minced green onion tops and parsley, or perhaps chives, along with a bit of tarragon and the merest whiff of thyme mixed into the eggs; but the result is ever so

Hungry for a summertime "Spanish Omelette"—just mix chopped fresh tomatoes with some chopped onions and sliced green olives and seasonings, prepare your omelette and wrap it around the filling. Any leftover shrimp or ham or chicken? Chop some and mix into the eggs, or use as a filling, perhaps in a cream or tomato sauce, for a rolled omelette. Why not add that little bowl of leftover mushrooms or green beans or what have you to the mixture? Or, for your sweet tooth, make a fruit or jelly omelette. Just omit the pepper and salt or other seasonings, of course, and make the omelette, using crushed and sweetened peaches or strawberries or other fresh

And, for a truly festive finale, slide the whole business into a hot oven for a minute, take it out and pour a few teaspoonsful of rum or brandy over the top, strike a match, and proudly bear it flaming to the table!

Try out your own omelette variations; you'll be surprised at the tasty dishes you devise. Remember, allow two eggs, a generous dash of cream or milk or soda, and seasonings per person—and never, every try to make too large an omelette at any time, no matter how large your skillet. (It doesn't work that way, at least not for me!)

Beat the yolks slightly and add the cream or whatever and seasonings. Next, add the slightly beaten egg whites, and mix well. Be sure to have that skillet or omelette pan quite hot, with a thin layer of melted butter or margarine filming the bottom. As you tilt the pan to ensure that the butter comes up the sides, pour in the egg mixture, and just as soon as it starts to set, turn the heat low. Keep lifting up the cooked part with a fork or knife or spatula so that the raw egg mixture runs underneath and it all cooks to a turn. When it's ready, hold the pan in your left hand almost upright over the serving platter, give it a bit of a push with your spatula-and there you

And, if you're in more of a hurry, just beat the eggs together instead of separating yolks and whites. And, here's a quick all-in-one skillet supper: Layer sliced potatoes in your skillet in a bit of oil, let them cook and brown, then pour the eggs over, along with whatever

Under-12 Select team chosen

Bay Area Youth Soccer is developing a State Division (Select) soccer program in addition to the recreation soccer program offered.

Initial round selections have been made in the Under-12 State Division based on performance evaluations and skill

The Under-12 team is coached by Tom Demboski and assisted by Richard Flowers and Craig Foster.

Tom Demboski is a USSF Class "D" licensed coach and Richard Flowers is a USSF Class "E" licensed coach. Craig Foster has been both a head coach and an assistant coach in the Under-10 Division.

All three are licensed USSF referees and bring more than 20 years of combined experience to the coaching staff.

A practice session and final round tryouts will be held by the team this Sunday afternoon at the Waveland Elementary Soccer Field.

All youth who attended any of the tryouts and anyone else wanting to try out for the final round of selections should attend this session at 4 p.m. on August 19, bringing shin guards, soccer shoes and a number four soccer ball for the session.

Thirteen youth players have been selected for the team roster thus far in initial tryouts. Under-12 players selected are Jason Chiniche, Scott Courrege, David Flowers, Michael Flowers, Kile Foster, Kyle Kidd, Brantley Ladner, Michael Mancuso, Ty McMichael, Jimmy Saucier and Kenny Spansel.

Two additional players have been selected pending BAYS Board approval.

Upon completion of the final round of tryouts, between two to three additional players will be added to the team roster. Anyone desiring to play in this division should attend the tryouts Sunday.

On Saturday, Aug. 18 at 2 through Sp.m., there will be a coaching places will clinic held at the Waveland later date.

Library on Coleman Avenue.

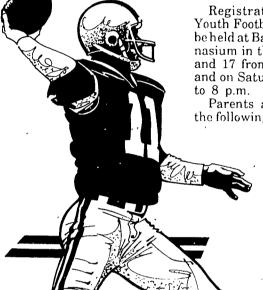

This clinic is open to anyone interested in coaching soccer or assisting with a team.

The clinic will be free of cost to the public and is being sponsored by BAYS Soccer.

Instructor will be Dr. Frank Glamser, head coach for the University of Southern Mississippi soccer team. The clinic will be from 2 to 5 p.m. Coaching at all levels will be covered.

The regular soccer season for recreational soccer will begin registration on Wednesday, Sept. 5 and will continue through Sept. 15. Times and places will be announced at a later date.

Skaters on boards for last summer jam

BY TRACI BONNEY

Skateboards across the Coast are practicing their moves and readying their boards for the "Summer's Last Skate Jam" being held September 8 at the Valena C. Jones gym.

The contest, being sponsored by Hot Seasons Surf and Skate Shop and the newly-formed Gulf Coast Skateboard Association, has attracted a good deal of interest so far, according to event coordinator Steve Thoms.

"I'm anticipating having at least 50 participants," he said. The contest will be divided into four categories: beginner A

(for contestants 10 years old and younger), beginner B, inter-

Exceptional!

BY JANET MCQUEEN

A summer camp sponsored by Parents and Professionals of Exceptional Children afforded local youngsters the opportunity to enjoy a variety of activities.

Sponsored by The United Way of Hancock County, the eight-week camp was designed to meet the needs of the "physically and mentally challenged" children in the community, according to Coach Steve Odham of Clermont

Odham, who teaches adapted physical education at five public schools in New Orleans, declines use of the word "handicapped"—which he feels tends to isolate and place a stigma on the children.

He coordinated the program with assistance from Laura Griffith, Mary Proby and D borah South.

· Activities, based at North Bay Elementary, included tennis, baseball, soccer, arts and crafts and movies. Waveland Resort Inn hosted the youth for a game of miniature golf while a swimming party was held at St. Stanislaus pool under the direction of Brother Albert. The summer camp, which is in its second year, included siblings of the exceptional children. Odham feels the children learn from each other.

Most of the campers had perfect attendance, according to Laura Griffith.

Booker-Shabazz Progress Movement

Self-esteem, communication skills, Black History focus of workshops

BY JANET MCQUEEN

For three days in August, 33 coast pre-teens and teenagers stopped summertime activities of "hanging around", "watching soaps" and "playing Nintendo" to look inside themselves.

The Booker-Shabazz Progress Movement is the creation of Darryl Booker and Ya-Sin Shabazz, both of Bay St. Louis. Now in its second year, the seminar offered five workshops led by volunteer counselors.

Shabazz, 20, and his fellow counselors divided the youth into small groups to encourage participation.

Topics included "Your Place in the Home", "SelfEsteem", "Time Management", "Self Expression" and
"Black History".

The participants, clad in identical T-shirts, listened with rapt attention to the counselors, who were college students in their early 20's.

"When you set a goal, you have to work towards it every day," Shabazz told a group of six. "If you want to play professional ball, you have to practice every day. It won't just happen; you have to work."

He hopes to see the teens establish a support group which will stay intact throughout the year, to help them stand strong against peer pressure.

"If each one would set a good example for his friends, the effects will be multiplied," said Shabazz. "If a 12-year-old cannot relate to others, it is not his problem.

"There is no reason to say 'I can't work with you' or write a child off as a discipline problem when all he needs is motivation." "Someone needs to say to him 'I want you to achieve' and genuinely care whether he does," he said. Monique Hazeur, 12, said the workshop was great for building confidence. "It also told us a lot about our heritage. Everyone benefitted from it."

Guest lecturer on Black History was Lucimarian Roberts of Pass Christian, chairman of the state board of education.

"I learned never to put myself down," said Tanya Curry, 12. "I have a chance to make it in this world and be anything I want to be."

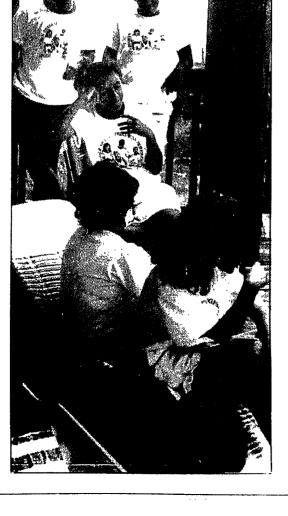

Other local youths who participated included Marian Labat. Robert Vonture. Tanya Curry, Zenobia Saucier, Emily Jacobs. Talvin Payne, John Green, Nathan Middleton, Lydell Haynes, Wali Shabazz, Erica Lymuel, Janice Newkirk, Sean Gillum, J. T. Tillman, Chari Lee and Ricky Lewis.

Counselors included Shabazz, Booker, Marcus Stubbs, Riva Brown, Maurice Reese, Charles Graham, Dy'Etra Hall, Monya Stubbs and Robin Magee.

The counselors plan to be "pen pals" with five or six participants each, in hopes of monitoring their progress throughout the school year.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Adult Literacy Education

Tutoring sessions for adults who want to learn to read and write are available through the Hancock County Library System. The program is open free of charge to any adult aged 16 and above who wants to improve reading skills to a grade five

Each student meets one-onone with a certified tutor trained in the use of the Laubach Adult Literacy method. Student/tutor units meet at a time and learning center convenient to both. Learning centers for literacy are currently located in Bay St. Louis, Kiln, Waveland, Diamondhead, Dedeaux, Clermont Harbor and Pearlington.

Call the Bay St. Louis Library, 467-5282, for information. Persons who wish to teach adults to read as volunteer literacy tutors are also encouraged

Senior Center Thrift Store

Located in the Valena C. Jones Bldg. at 301 Old Spanish Trail in Bay St. Louis, the center serves Hancock County citizens 60 plus years of age.

Under the Hancock County Human Resource Agency, the center provides classes in ceramics. macrame', art, quilting, counted cross stitch, silk flowers, Christmas ornaments, framing, wood working and various other crafts. A morning snack is provided with donations from various clubs and businesses.

The center has a contract to provide 30 home delivered meals a day to those seniors who cannot provide for themselves, and 35 meals for those who have a need for a hot wellbalanced meal daily in the cafeteria at the center.

Transportation is provided through a contract with Coast Area Transportation for most seniors in the county to bring them into the center, or to take them to the grocery, doctor, etc.
The contract with Methodist

Senior Services provides two homemakers for about two hours a week to homebound, needy seniors to do light housekeeping or errands for them.

For more information, call the center at 467-9292 from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Money Management

The Consumer Money Management Center serves the public by providing free financial consultations as well as informational literature and seminars for employers, educational institutions and civic and professional groups.

The service is sponsored by Mississippi State University and Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. To set up an appointment call Hancock County Extension Office, 467-5456.

states and local governments seek improvements in school readiness, dropout prevention, student achievement and teacher recruitment, U.S. Rep. Gene Taylor said.

A $1 billion education initiative entitled "The Equity and Excellence in Education Act" was included in the 1991 appropriations for the U.S. Department of Education.

It directs students, teachers and administrators to move toward national goals set last fall by President Bush and the nation's governors.

Several of the provisions that are of particular interest to the 5th District include:

* A new fund to provide loans for students planning to teach in schools serving low-income children or rural or isolated

* Higher Education Act Amendments that will exclude the value of a family's home or farm from calculations for a student's eligibility for Pell Grants

* Awards and recognition for Presidential Schools of Distinction, schools participating in the Chapter 1 program which have improved student achievement and created a safe and drug-free environment.

Presidential Teacher Awards for Excellence in Education which would provide $5,000 awards for selected outstanding teachers.

Earlier in the session, the House passed the Math and Science Education Amendments to establish programs to provide technical assistance and curriculum material to schools and teachers of math and science. Bills were passed to provide grants for training teachers and counselors for drug abuse education and to reserve $15 million for grants to Drug Abuse Resistance Programs (DARE) which bring parents, students, teachers and law enforcement officers together to teach children to resist drugs and alcohol.

UNO registration information given

Registration for the University of New Orleans 1990 fall semester will be Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 20-22, in the UNO/Kiefer Lakefront Arena. Classes will begin Friday, Aug. 24.

This is the first time that registration will be in the university's arena, which is located on UNO's east campus, bordered by Franklin Avenue and Leon C. Simon Boulevard.

S. Mark Strickland, dean of academic services, said the purpose of moving the entire registration process from the main campus to the Lakefront Arena is to offer new and returning students a better environment for class selection and registration procedures. Parking is plentiful and a shuttle bus will run between the arena and the University Center on the main campus.

Strickland said that a $10 student fee, to be used for the development and implementation of computerized registration, will begin this fall.

The final date to submit an application for admission for the fall semester, except for straight re-entry students (those whose last enrollment was at UNO), is Aug. 17. Straight re-entry students have until Aug. 29 to apply.

Late application fees are currently in effect. Late registration begins Aug. 24; the final day of late registration for regular classes at UNO is Aug. 30. A late registration fee is effective Aug. 23.

Undergraduate and nondegree graduate credit students wishing to take only off-campus and/or Saturday courses may do a walk-in registration by reporting to ramp four of the arena to file an application and register from 5:30 to 7:45 p.m. in the following alphabetical order, M-Z, Aug. 20; A-L, Aug. 21. Students wishing to attend both on and off-campus classes register during their regularly scheduled registration.

For further information, call UNO's Office of Admissions and Records, 286-6595.

By Joe Pilet Friendship Oak DAR Conservancy Chairman

Flag Code booklet outlines procedures number of requests for the Flag Code pamphlet which is distributed by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, according to Mrs. Philip R. (Shirley) Davenport, past regent of the Friendship Oak Chapter of that organization.

Mrs. Davenport said she has a new supply on order and in the meantime will place the few, and pamphlets now available where they may be on display for" reference.

Of special interest are the dates that have been announced when patriotic citizens are asked to display their flags.

Arbor Day will be celebrated Feb. 8, 1991. Tree planting will be Oct. 7-13, and Fire Prevention Week will be Oct. 7-13, 1990. These dates have been announced by Mrs. A. E. Smith of Yazoo City who serves as state conservation chairman.

The Flag Code devoted two paragraphs to the questions asked concerning desecration of the flag of the United States and includes penalties applicable.

Quoting from the pamphlet: "Whoever knowingly casts contempt upon any flag of the United States by publicly mutilating, defacing, defiling, burning, or trampling upon it shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than a year or both."

Joe Pilet, who serves as conservation chairman for her chapter, plans to announce the distribution of the Flag Code pamphlets as soon as they nlike in the past when our only choices of dinnerware were fragile porcelain or heavy earthenware, we may now combine the delicacy of fine china with the durability of stoneware into one beautiful and versatile product. CHANTILLY STONEWARE by Hearthside.

ight and carefree but subtly elegant CHANTILLY STONEWARE with its pastel tones of pink, blue and green lends a cheerful accent to your favorite table setting. Whichever pattern you choose, its beauty will last no matter how much it is used.
